WASLA 2005 Design Awards Call for Entries

Submission deadline extended to Thursday, October 20th

Applications available from the WASLA website www.wasla.org

Submit to WASLA Office by 5:00pm,
603 Stewart Street, Suite 610, Seattle WA 98101, (206) 443-9484

It is not too late to submit a project to be considered for the WASLA 2005 Design Awards. The deadline has been extended. The submission form can be found on our website under HOT NEWS and the calendar of events. The deadline has been extended from today, Friday, October 14th to Thursday, October 20th.

Entries will be accepted from all WASLA members and all Washington state residents. The categories for awards include design, residential garden design, planning & analysis, research & communication, and works in progress. The judging of the awards will include: quality of design, analysis, planning and research; functionality; context and environmental responsibility; presentation; and relevance to the profession, the public and the environment. All submissions will be reviewed by our renowned jurors:

- John Hoge, award winning stone sculptor;
- Michael Kattermann, principal with AHBL, Inc, a multi-disciplinary planning/landscape/engineering firm;
- Sean Michael, Ph.D., Landscape Architecture professor at Washington State University;
- Lucia Pirzio-Biroli, principle architect at Studio Ectypos;
- Nancy Rottle, Landscape Architecture professor at University of Washington.

Design Dialogue Discussion: "A Highway Free Shore: The Future of Seattle's Waterfront?" Presented by Cary Moon and Julie Parrett, The People's Waterfront Coalition
By Maureen Colaizzi, President-Elect

2nd Design Dialogue Discussion, Seattle Waterfront
Thursday, October 20th 6:00pm @ Mithun

1201 Alaskan Way, Suite 200, Seattle, WA 98101, (206) 623-3344

RSVP to Dakota Keene, Dakotak@mithun.com by Wednesday, October 19th

Drinks and light Hors d'oeuvre sponsored by Mithun

The quarterly discussion continues with a new topic, the Seattle waterfront. Speakers Cary Moon and Julie Parrett will share the goals of the People's Waterfront Coalition for helping to shape the future of Seattle's waterfront. For more information about the People's Waterfront Coalition, visit www.peoplewaterfront.org. Come, listen, share your views and ideas and engage in a dialogue. The Design Dialogue discussions are an opportunity for members to discover and discuss design issues that are important to our built environment. WASLA had a successful first discussion about Community Design this past April. There was engaging conversation from about thirty design professionals, students and guest speakers Jim Diers and Milenko Matanovic.

2005 WASLA Design Awards Program & WASLA Breakfast Discussion
By Liz Westbrook, Design Awards Program Committee

Design Awards Ceremony and Reception

Keynote Speaker, Pat Caughey, FASLA

Thursday, November 3rd @ Smith Tower Chinese Room

506 2nd Avenue, 10th Floor, Seattle, WA 98101

$50.00/person, RSVP REQUIRED @ AWARDS, www.wasla.org

WASLA's gala event for 2005. Come be part of the excitement!

The Awards Ceremony will be held in the Chinese Room at the top floor of the landmark Smith Tower in Seattle's historic Pioneer Square on November 3 with National ASLA president-elect Pat Caughey as the key note speaker. Pat Caughey, FASLA, national ASLA president-elect, of Solana Beach, CA will be the keynote presenter at the event. Caughey has been involved with ASLA for 20 years and will address creating more visibility for landscape architecture and creating more leaders within the organization. We will be honoring the lives of two great Landscape Architects that have passed away over the past year. In addition we will acknowledge our leaders within the Chapter, their work and contribution to the society and community. We hope you will join us for this event to review and learn what works of Landscape Architecture our collective design community in Washington are highlighting.
